Chorus goes pink and for breast cancer awareness

Choral-Aires raise funds for Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure

Elmhurst—On Monday, September 20, the women of the Sweet Adelines medalist chorus, Choral-Aires Chorus, will don pink and open their wallets to give to the fight against breast cancer. Personal donations received that night will go to the Chorus' fundraising efforts for the Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure. The Chorus, currently the top fundraising team in Lombard, is participating in the September 26 race on behalf of their family and friends who have fought—or are currently fighting—breast cancer.

Community members are invited to join the Chorus, and give to the cause, during its normally scheduled practice, held from 7-10 p.m. at the Redeemer Lutheran Church Recreation Center (345 S. Kenilworth Avenue, Elmhurst).

Lindsey Herza, the Chorus' team captain says of this event, "Many chorus members have been touched by the fight against breast cancer, either personally, or within their families. We are thrilled to stand with them and offer our support. The women in our chorus are extremely close, what each person goes through, we all experience; the good and the bad."

Women of all ages who desire to be a part of an outstanding chorus are invited to join the Choral-Aires Chorus during weekly rehearsals held each Monday from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m, at Redeemer Lutheran Church (345 S. Kenilworth Avenue, Elmhurst). For more information, contact Jane Toftey at 630.665.8387.

More than 100 women from Illinois, Indiana and Wisconsin sing tight harmonies a capella (without instrumentation) with the Choral-Aires Chorus, the 2008 Lake Michigan Region 3 Champion with the Sweet Adelines International. This program is partially supported by a grant from the Illinois Arts Council, a state agency. More information about the Chorus can be found at their website, <http://choral-aires.org>.
